

Mommy To Be Wish List

Moms-to-be — Don't forget that Gingersnaps offers a "Mommy Special." Steamed hot chocolate to keep up your calcium. Get it with Whipped Cream for a little treat — you deserve it!

- ❑ Belly Butter — Rub on that stretching belly to help with moisturizing and itchiness.
- ❑ Preggie Pops — Ease nausea the natural way. Preggie Pop Drops are the all-natural way to ease nausea. Formulated especially for pregnant women suffering from morning sickness, they alleviate dry mouth, provide quick calories and energy during labour.
- ❑ 2Chix Tees — Cute maternity t-shirts with saying like "we're hungry" "with bump, not plump" "what's kickin'" etc.
- ❑ Bella Bands — A stretchy band you wear over your pants. Allows you to wear your old jeans with the button undone, or helps hold up your new still-too-big maternity pants.
- ❑ Tanks Tops — From the makers of Bella Bands, ruched tank tops made of a stretchy comfortable knit. Extra long, the ruching subtle pleating around your body in early pregnancy, a smooth, supportive silhouette on a blossomed belly, and heavy pleating after baby to disguise your soft, recovering belly.
- ❑ Camisoles — From the makers of Bella Bands, great for wearing on it's own or under your favorite pre-pregnancy shirts. Resistant to piling and fading. Make it your lounge-in-it, work-in-it, sleep-in-it, I-love-it cami.
- ❑ Leggings — Also from the makers of Bella Bands. Our Belly Leggings are made of a luxurious, ultra-soft knit that stretches to gently hug your hips, legs and belly. Our high seamless waistband gives your belly full coverage and room to grow while the legs are cut long for year-round wear. Made with your changing body in mind, you can wear the waistband folded at the waistline in early pregnancy, up high and over your belly for full coverage as you grow, and, when it's more comfortable, folded around the lower hips for under-the-belly support in your last weeks of pregnancy. Also great for body support after baby arrives. Did we say how soft they are? So soft.
- ❑ Everywear Pant — Again, from the makers of Bella Bands (these girls know pregnancy!) We love its versatility. You can wear the waistband all the way up for full belly coverage, fold it to the waist or hips for some extra support under your belly, or pull it all the way down around your bum and hips for a cute skirt-over-pant look. We love its fabric. And let us tell you, it was hard to find. We looked high and low for a fabric that is soft and super-stretchy, hugs the body, and drapes for a cute boot cut. Most of all, we love its look. Whether you dress it up or dress it down, this is a basic black pant that gives you tons of options. We're so happy to bring it to moms-to-be in a cute, comfortable, wear-it-everywhere design. It's ok if you want to wear it everyday.
